

EAN CoCoCare Programme

Application deadline: March 19, 2023

2023

Training the future of European Guidelines

April 2023 – June 2024

The 1st EAN Programme for Guideline Education and Cost-Conscious Healthcare (CoCoCare)

Building the future of European guidelines by training young neurologists how to develop and implement high quality, evidence-based guidelines

General InformationStructure

1-year-programme divided into 4 phases of online and onsite learning. Participation in the entire programme is mandatory.

Capacity: 20 Participants

E-Learning	April–June 2023
Kick-off Workshop	June 30, 2023
Training on the Job	August 2023 – June 2024
Poster Presentation	EAN Congress 2024

Learn the Key Skills for Guideline Development

- Systematic reviews and meta-analyses
- Developing clinical questions
- GRADE evidence profiles and EtDs
- AGREE II tool
- How to present

Optional topics: Economic evaluation, guideline implementation tools, evaluating guideline impact

Benefits

Participants receive FREE access to all learning materials (webinars, videos, quizzes, exercises, etc.) as well as guidance and advice from trainers.

Participants who complete the programme and present a poster at the EAN Congress 2024 receive:

- CoCoCare Completion Certificate
- A grant to participate in the EAN Congress worth €700 (incl. registration and 2 nights of accommodation)
- The opportunity to work with EAN guideline experts
- Public acknowledgment

Eligibility

All applicants must be an RRFS member at the time of application.

Application for RRFS membership must be started ideally 4 weeks before application deadline.

Application Requirements

1. EAN Online Application Form (only visible after login)
2. Statement of support from a Medical Supervisor*
3. Letter of motivation

*more information on our website

Application Procedure

- The link to the application form is only visible to EAN members during the application period on our website: www.ean.org/research/ean-guidelines/about-ean-guidelines-for-neurologists/cococare-project
- Please make sure to log into your myEAN account to gain access to the form.
- All application requirements shall be submitted via the online form.
- All information and documents must be provided in English.
- All applications shall be reviewed by the Guideline Production Group.

Application open between February 13th, 2023 until March 19th, 2023.

For questions, please contact scientific@ean.org.